A Word from Pastor Julie:
Growing in Love and Service Together

December 2026

When you are depressed and life is a snarl, then is the time to QUIT THINKING and just go out and breathe and breathe. Elizabeth Jones Towne.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ of Peace and Grue Parish,

Blessings to you as we enter into the season of Advent and Christmas. For many of us, it's also a season of lots of activity and running around. There are Christmas Markets, Christmas programs at church, school and the community at large. There are trees to trim, cookies to bake, cards to write, meals to prep, yadda, yadda, yadda. All of this on top of the normal hustle and bustle of our daily routines of commutes, doctors' appointments, extracurricular activities and whatever chores or duties we have. I must admit, when I hear the phrase "a weary world rejoices" from one of my favorite Christmas hymns, "Oh Holy Night", aside from rejoicing for the arrival of the Christ Child, my weary world is also rejoicing that now I can ditch the Hectic Holiday Hamster Wheel I seem to end up on every year.

It's exhausting and overwhelming at times isn't it? I need a nap just thinking about it, but then again, my tired state might have something to do with the fact I was recently diagnosed with sleep apnea, and today, I am picking up my early Christmas present of a shiny new CPAP machine. (Admittedly, I don't really know if it will be shiny, I just want it to work!) I've received a lot of feedback about this from many of you along with family and friends, and the one consistent thing everyone keeps telling me is how much better my sleep quality will be and how much more rested I will feel. I am so looking forward to that, because I am really tired (pun intended) of getting a lot of sleep that's poor quality and does not leave me feeling rested. Just as I feel draggy due to my oxygen debt that's built up over time due to my apnea, I'm reminded of the need to make sure that I'm giving my spiritual life the oxygen needed to maintain the energy which allows me to live into whatever God's calling me into in the world. In the same way my CPAP machine will improve my oxygen intake resulting in a healthier and energized me, we need to be attentive and discerning to how we are feeding our faith. Just as we need to be good consumers of our holiday budgets, we also need to be good consumers of where we direct our attention to spiritually. If you're getting bogged down in a version of Christianity that directs hatred or intolerance, that's inconsistent with Christ's commandment to love and serve God and neighbor. That understanding sucks the oxygen out of the love that God had for us in which Christ came to earth as a child to live among us and to die for us so that all may be saved by grace. So as you seek out sources of oxygen to renew yourselves in this very busy season, don't forget that Christ shows up because God so loved the world…..all the world!

As you experience this season, I hope you find sources for replenishing your spiritual, physical, and emotional oxygen levels. Whether it be an outdoor walk, carving out some intentional time for prayer and silent meditation, a phone call or text to someone who haven't connected with in forever, offering a random act of kindness. Whatever fills you and feeds your connectedness to God and all creation, as the Nike ad say, "Just Do It". If you find yourself in a space of Bah Humbug, be reminded that God won't love you any less if you don't win your neighborhood Christmas light contest, burn a batch of Christmas cookies or you can't find the elusive toy that your kid or grandkid "must have or they will DIE". Be gentle and kind with yourself as well as others. You are God's beloved child and God sent Christ to be born in human form in order to die so that you may live.

In this holy and sacred season, let's live into the words of the beloved song, "Let there be Peace on Earth, and let it begin with me. Prayers for peace and blessings to you and all you hold dear, along with all Creation. Pastor Julie

"The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life." Job 33:4

PEACE WELCA NEWS

November is a month for being thankful and I have many things to be thankful for. I am thankful, this month, that as a country, we take a special day to offer our thanks for our many blessings and celebrate together as family and friends. I am thankful we have Pastor Julie as our shepherd. Not all churches are blessed with a full time pastor. I am thankful for the Nelson family serving coffee and participating in the volunteer worship opportunities, and I am thankful for my family taking care of the December worship opportunities.

I did not calculate how many newsletter articles I have written for WELCA over the years but serving as President for 22 out of the last 28 years, it has been a few and I am thankful this is my last one. Thank you to everyone for your help along the way, it could not be done without you being involved. Thank you to Carol and Jody for volunteering their leadership and I look forward, very much, to new ideas and direction.

I attended the Conference 8 Gathering at Grace in Brandon a few weeks ago, it is always fulfilling to renew those friendships I have made along the way . Pastor Julie led our devotions and worship time; and the program was a lady and her son sharing their experiences of how God provides to help them (and her late husband) build new medical facilities in Tanzania over the past 20 plus years. Our Spring Conference will be in Elbow Lake.

Thanksgiving celebrations are in the past and we are in the midst of preparing for Christmas gatherings. Let us not forget to reflect on the true meaning of Christmas in our busyness. Our Sunday School is preparing to do a live nativity and share with you the birth of our Savior during worship on the 20th.

Our Christmas Market is coming up this next Saturday, December 5 at the Community Center, starting at 9 am. ONe more time to be thankful, Carol, Jody and Jenny have worked hard to plan this day; and it is an opportunity for everyone to participate with baking, crafts, sampling; and, of course, financial support. Remember to turn in your sold quilt tickets for these beautiful flannel quilts made by Lynette Rohloff. Please thank her when you see her. We are so blessed to have quilters in our church to volunteer their time each year to make these amazing quilts for our annual raffle.

Thankful for all of you:

Val Fick
WELCA Co - President

Peace WELCA News

December 2026

Brought to you by your 2027 WELCA Co-Chairs Jody Dahlen & Carol Koefod

Acknowledgements:

Jody and I would like to take this opportunity to say a very heartfelt thank you to Janet Novak & Val Fick for their years of dedication and service to our WELCA organization and its missions locally and around the world. Your efforts never went unnoticed and quite often were the very thing that kept many going during what became very uncertain times over the last decade. Your steadfast leadership and commitment to serving our congregation and our Lord and Savior leaves us with very big shoes to fill to be sure, but also with a clear and bright path to a beautiful future filled with the promise of God's love.

Upcoming:

Our Fellowship room updating project is well underway, and much earlier than we thought!! What a pleasant surprise! The next phase will be flooring. Watch here for updates!

CHRISTMAS MARKET 2026

It is time to decide what you are contributing to the 2026 Christmas Market!! Are you crafting, baking, or coming to support the quilt raffle and enjoy a Scandinavian treat or two? We are excited to be hosting the Scandinavian Tasting Table and hope to see many members and friends from the community as we continue to work toward updating our fellowship space and our mission work. Any questions about the upcoming Christmas Market or how you can help please talk to Jody Dahlen, Jenny Holte, or Carol Koefod. We still need 4 people to help clean-up at 1:00 Dec. 5.

Thoughts & Ideas:

Jody and I are very excited to take on the new role of Co-Chairs of WELCA but also quite nervous to meet the expectations. We are aware that there are generations represented within the memories of what WELCA was and is, and we are ready to create a new understanding of what it can be as well. More on that in January when we officially take over our positions within WELCA.

QUILTERS NEWS

Sue Frost from Clitherall was the lucky person that took home the thrift store quilt in November. The quilt for the December drawing is an all flannel, cozy winter design.

In November 7 quilts were delivered to the Vets home in Fergus Falls, 9 quilts were delivered to Someplace Safe in Fergus and 6 quilts were delivered to The Salvation Army.

Thank you to Lynn Jensen and Dee Holte for helping us finish the quilts for these missions and to Dorothy Sorenson for ironing backs for us.

We have had a couple inquiries about starting an evening quilting group so we plan to do this after first of the new year. We would like to know what evening works best and what time. Please contact Teresa Magnuson or Val Fick if interested.

Alaska Mission Trip Update

At this time, 18 people have expressed an interest in going on the Alaska Mission Trip to Alaska in 2028, we will begin fundraising after the first of the year. Several people have mentioned that they are still considering it and will make a decision by the March 31, 2027 cutoff, however, it would be helpful to know how many people are thinking about it so we can better guesstimate our needs for housing, etc. for budgeting/fundraising purposes. If you are considering it, whether seriously or minimally serious, please text or call Pastor Julie at 320-491-2304 or email pastorjuliecarlson@gmail.com. Thank you!

Members of the Alaska Mission Trip Planning Team met on October 14 to begin the journey north to Alaska! As we make our way further down the trail we will be sharing more information as the trip takes shape. At this time, around 15 people have expressed interest and plan on taking part. We realize that it's difficult to plan with limited information, so stay tuned for future updates, but we can share a few things. We have decided that those who would like to participate commit no later than March 31, 2027. We have also implemented a minimum age requirement of 12 for youth who will not be accompanied by an adult. Several people have asked whether members of other congregations can take part. At this time, we feel we need to see what the response is from Peace and Grue members. After the March 31 cutoff, we will determine where we are at with numbers and if there is space available to invite others.

We have determined the time frame for the trip, which will be two weeks in early August of 2028. Pastor Julie has been in contact with numerous ELCA congregations in the Alaska Synod, and these churches have been very welcoming and enthusiastic to help us out. A general overview of what we have in mind:

- Approximately one week in the Anchorage/Wasilla area where we will be working with the congregations in Wasilla, Chugiak, Downtown Anchorage on service projects in partnership with these congregations. We will also be attending some of their worship services and building new relationships there as well. Pastor Julie is planning an evening outdoor worship service one of the nights. Our friends at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Wasilla have graciously offered us a place to stay for our time there. During our time there, we will plan an adventure day and visit Denali National Park.

- We will then spend the rest of the time in the Kenai Peninsula, visiting and partnering with ELCA Congregations in Seward and Soldotna. We will likely stay in the Soldotna area. We will also offer a variety of options for a free day the second week: fishing, Kenai Fjords tour, side-trip to Homer and other things. We recognize that we're a diverse group with diverse interests, so we will spend a day where team members can decide where to "find their fun" on the Peninsula before we return home.

Of course, to make this trip possible we need your support. First and foremost, please add us to your prayer lists. We will be having a number of fundraisers, so stay tuned for those, and thank you in advance for your supporting those. Speaking for myself and all of us on the team and those who have expressed interest in going, thank you all. We are very excited to embark on this journey together as God's people representing Peace and Grue.
Pastor Julie
