November 2024

Dear friends in Christ at Peace and Grue.

While the confirmation students are still working through the Ten Commandments, we are going to jump ahead to the Apostle's Creed, as we continue to work our way through Luther's Small Catechism. If the Commandments reveal we do not have life in ourselves, the Apostle Creed tells us where life comes from as God makes himself known to us, raising up the you who can say "I believe."

A creed is a statement of belief. A concise summary of who and what God is about. It is a very summary of the Bible. In the order of worship, the Creed comes between the sermon and the prayers of the church, just before the liturgy of Holy Communion. For Luther, the chief function of the Creed is to summarize God's grace and mercy, describing all the things that God has done, is doing, and will do for us.

Although one goes logically from creation to redemption to sanctification (being made holy), Luther in the Large Catechism said we actually experience God in reverse:

"In all three articles God himself has revealed and opened to us the most profound depths of his fatherly heart and his pure, unutterable love. For this very purpose he created us, so that he might redeem us and make us holy, and moreover, having granted and bestowed upon us everything in heaven and on earth, he has also given us his Son and his Holy Spirit, through whom he brings us to himself. For we could never come to recognize the Father's favor and grace were it not for the Lord Christ, who is a mirror of the Father's heart. But neither could we know anything of Christ had it not been revealed by the Holy Spirit." (Book of Concord, pp. 439-40)

Luther's Small Catechism focuses on the Apostles' Creed which goes back to an ancient Roman baptismal creed. Immediately before receiving baptism in the name of the triune God, the person being welcomed into the Christian faith was asked, "Do you believe in God the Father?" They were then asked, "Do you believe in Jesus Christ?" and finally "Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?" And the person would respond, "I believe..." followed with each article of the creed.

When we confess "I believe," we testify to and claim the Christian faith as our own. So what about those times when we find it difficult to believe. In those times we rely on the confession of others. We say, "Okay, the church confesses this, and I pray with them so that God will see us through until such a time as I can really say, "This is most certainly true", which hints at where we will be going next.

The Creed has a trinitarian structure, not only because it contains articles on the Father, the Son, sand the Holy Spirit. When we say the Creed, we speak to the Father, with the Son, and in the Holy Spirit. We dare to speak to God at all only because we join our voices with the voice of Jesus who prayed to the one he called his Father. And we do so in the Spirit who carries our voices to God who promises to hear. More about that next month.

I hope you are having an enjoyable Fall,

Pastor Dan

GRUE WELCA NEWS

October 21,2024

The Grue Women's Bible Study was canceled for October due to members absent. We will be having our regular meeting in November with Bible study, business meeting, election of officers, planning our next years events and donations, on November 19th, 2024.

Our Grue women were honored to prepare the confirmation banquet on Sunday Evening, October 20th, 2024, at Peace church, with the help of Jackie Anderson and four confirmation students serving our guests. Thank you, gentlemen, we appreciated the help and also helping with the cleanup, great job. We were honored to hear the confirmand's faith statements.

Thank you to all who helped prepare and help in the kitchen, it was a good evening.

We were invited to participate in the Dalton Christmas Fest 2nd Annual Craft Sale at the Community Center in Dalton, crafts, food, etc. on December 14th, 9-3.

There will be many different items for sale. We did very well there with our quilt raffle last year. All are Welcome.

PEACE WELCA NEWS

PEACE WELCA MESSAGE

10/22/24

Welcome to November!

Habitat for Humanity. Many of you are familiar with the term and wanted you all to know there is a home being built in Dalton supported by this great organization. On behalf of WELCA, Val and Cindy delivered meals to the building crew on the 15th of October. We will be providing lunch again on Tuesday, October 29th and Saturday, November 2nd. If you would like to be involved, please contact one of us.

Another date to put on your calendar is Saturday, November 23rd. More detail in another part of this newsletter but hoping you will join us that morning at 9:00am. Pastor Maddie Elliot from Luther Crest will be helping us praise God and set our minds for the coming seasons. It will be a short program ending at 10:30 but could make all the difference in how you and your family plan and prioritize the next couple of months!

Thank you Leslie, family and friends for filling those important Sunday volunteer roles in October.

Congratulations to Pam Olson for winning the quilt at the Second Chance Thrift Shop. Our kind and generous quilting members donate a quilt each month. Ashby's thrift shop is a blessing to our community and filled to the brim with holiday décor, household items, cards, clothing and almost anything you can think of. I always find something I can use or need. They have recently added a small and cute "Last Chance" area.

Enjoy the last of this wonderful weather!

Sister in Christ and WELCA Co President,

Janet Novak

P.S. Please check your contact information in Annual Report and WELCA handbook for accuracy. Call church office at 218-747-2273 to provide correct information.
